Come join me now in Free-dom's Song Let bells and bu - gles A - mer - i - ca will be my toast Where'er I chance to ring I'll sing it as I march a-long And this is what I'll sing Oh! the germ we'll be And proud-ly this will be myboast I march for lib - er - ty Then when home - ward take from Ger - man And thehelm from Wil - helm too Free - men will steer the Ship of steps I'm fling - ing With all pride my chest will swell When I come back let Joy - bells

State with Lib - er - ty in view We'll cull that Pruss - ian cul - ture And then be - ring For this tale I shall tell We've cut that Pri - vate wire With which Bill fore we dine — We'll stop that an-cient time - piece — The Watch up - on the Rhine. — talked on high — We all guess where he's talk - ing now And you can if you try. —

CHORUS

— Now watch my steps As I march - ing — I throw them out just so — — With a one - step two - step, side - step — As on my way I go — And soon my steps I'll be turn - ing — Right back to old Broad - way, To the girl in mind that I left be - hind In the dear old U. S. A. —

 (To Brook - line and Back Bay)
